

IT-INHOUSE CONSULTANT E-COMMERCE (F/M/X)

We manufacture flap, hinge, pull-out, and pocket systems that are installed in furniture all over the world. Did you know that about 350 IT specialists take care of our modern IT environment? Our in-house IT consultants support our headquarters in Vorarlberg and our 32 subsidiaries with IT expertise. Learn more about the various professions in our IT department.

YOU

- ... work on IT topics in the e-commerce environment - also for the internationally active Blum group
- ... collaborate closely with our subject matter experts and external partner companies from the initial idea, through analysis, elaboration, and implementation, all the way to the go-live
- ... manage the backlog, write user stories, work with SCRUM, and coordinate the implementation of e-commerce projects
- ... ensure good information flow within the SCRUM teams and with relevant stakeholders

WE

- ... are looking for motivated colleagues who are eager to actively drive forward developments in e-commerce
- ... value good education – you have professional experience and/or relevant education (e.g. business informatics)
- ... operate globally – therefore, convincing communication skills in German and English are important to us
- ... are in search of a dedicated team member who contributes to a pleasant working atmosphere and excites us with a structured, constructive, and team-oriented way of working
