

SENIOR INHOUSE CONSULTANT (F/M/X)

Blum manufactures flap, hinge, pull-out and pocket systems for furniture, which are supplied to over 120 markets. For over a year now, we have had our own group that takes care of in-house consulting for Blum. We are looking for reinforcement for this group.

YOU

- ... work on strategic and cross-functional topics, establishing connections between different business areas and projects
- ... coordinate and guide projects in the role of project management, effectively applying project management methods
- ... actively support the personal development of our junior in-house consultants
- ... moderate confidently, helping teams arrive at shared, viable solutions. You act as a bridge between various stakeholders
- ... have an interest in organizational questions with a high degree of novelty and potential for change
- ... enjoy bringing employees from different areas together, contributing your own ideas, and facilitating appropriate decisions

WE

- ... seek a motivated individual who enjoys providing independent consulting services for our entire company. You bring experience in advising companies with a focus on "bringing in other perspectives and expertise"
- ... support our company in launching and successfully implementing new organizational topics. In this role, you can expect minimal routine work and partially undefined tasks or project assignments
- ... collaborate within networks of internal and external partners, where your strong communication skills come in handy
- ... as a consulting team, we continue to develop together and mutually benefit from our collective experiences
